MR BOGAERT COMING.

Mr. Victor Bogaert of Lexington, who is devoting his time and money to Belgium Relief, will visit Lancaster.
April 19th. He will speak to the school at the Auditorium at 2:45; and at the Court House at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

MAKING FINE SCHOOL.

Prof. P. H. Hopkins, superintendent of the Lancaster Graded Schools, was in Danville for a short time. Saturday.
Prof. Hopkins has been in Lancaster for but a short time, yet he has made a big improvement in the schools. He is well known in educational circles in Kentucky.—Danville Messenger.

RUNNING ON WHEELS

Capt. Am Boorne, the Auctioneer has just purchased a new car, and is now ready to do your Auctioneer work, no matter how large or how small, how far from home or how close for you can count on him being there for it's a "Ford." He also wishes to thank the public for past favors and hopes for a continuance of same.

BUYS FINE JACK.

What is said to be one of the best, if not the very best jack in Kentucky, was bought last week by Mr. Joe Wright, of Boyle county by Mr. L. S.
Tevis. This jack has a national reputation, is five years old and weighed 1220 pounds, every pound of which is quality unsurpassed. The price paid is said to have been about $3,000.
The jack will head the splendid herd of Mr. Wright.

HOLTZCLAW—GOOCH.

Miss Ella Mae Holtzclaw, daughter of W. Holtzclaw was married Tuesday afternoon to J. Webster Gooch, son of Representative Gooch, Elder F. M.
Tinder officiating. The bride is both beautiful and accomplished, while the groom is one of our most progressive young farmers. They start out on life's matrimonial sea under the happiest of circumstances and their friends wish them bon voyage.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Dr. E. A. Dawes, of Georgetown College and pastor of the Georgetown Baptist church will preach the baccalaureate sermon for the Paint Lick High School April 22.

Dr. Dawes needs no introduction to this community. Besides his scholarly attainments he is a magnetic speaker and Paint Lick is indeed fortunate in securing him. We bespeak for him a large audience.

AREOPLANE FUNERAL.

The first areoplane funeral ever held in America took place recently at Westbury, L. I., when twelve military biplanes in funeral procession, dropped flowers upon the grave of Peter Card Millman, an aviator and instructor who died of pneumonia. It is said the funeral was very impressive and quite a spectacle to those who witnessed the unique ceremony. This certainly under-the sea and up-in-the-air age with un-thought of wonders in store for future generations.

MODEL BARBER SHOP.

Lancaster can well boast of the prettiest barber shop in Central Kentucky; while not large, containing only three chairs, but the furnishings are up-to-date, beautiful, and from a sanitary standpoint, all that the most fastidious could wish.

Mr. J. E. Seale is the proud owner of this shop and by his courteous treatment, efficient help, has built up a splendid patronage since coming to our city three years ago.

Electric fans will be installed this summer and the room will be heated by steam. The furniture is heavily trimmed with beautiful white marble and every convenience seen in shops in large cities, Mr. Seale has provided for.
His progressiveness should be encouraged by a good patronage.

UNIMPROVED LAND

Sells for Over $199.00 per Acre

G. B. Swinebroad, the real estate man purchased of W. E. Moss a tract of 18.86 acres of land on the New Danville pike for $3900.00.

Mr. Swinebroad's long experience in the real estate business qualifies him as a judge of the value of land and while he bought this land to keep it adjoining his other property, he tells us he can sell it at a profit.

GOVERNOR STANLEY

Signs Oliver Tax Bill.

Frankfort Ky., April 11.—The first of Kentucky's new tax laws became effective at 1 o'clock this afternoon when Gov Stanley signed the Oliver Tax Commission bill. He affixed his signature to the act in his private office with a gold pen, handed him by his secretary, Miss Minnie Mahler. After signing the document Gov. Stanley handed the pen to Representative Jack Oliver, who introduced the bill, saying as he did so, "That's the best law I've signed in many a day."

The bill, providing for a tax commission, carries an emergency clause and became a law as soon as the Governor signed it.

COL. J. B. WILLIS

Passes Away At His Crab Orchard Springs Home.

A distinct shock was felt in Lancaster by the numerous friends of Col. J. B.
Willis when it was known he had died at his Springs Hotel in Crab Orchard, Monday morning, of diabetes.

Mr. Willis was a genial, broad-minded man of quiet and gentle disposition and the esteem in which he was held by his neighbors was evinced by the kindly and untiring attention which they devoted to him during a lingering illness. Mr. Willis made an ideal host, always in a happy humor, whether greeting or speeding the parting guest, and he will be sadly missed by those who spend sometime each year at Crab Orchard. He was a typical Kentucky gentleman, he loved his fellowman, he loved the horses, the dogs, he made pets of squirrels and birds; he loved, in fact, all life and nature.

After funeral services the body was borne to his old home at Richmond for burial. He sleeps today beneath the soil of Madison county which he so well loved. Peace to his ashes!

The Record extends sympathy to the devoted wife and children who are left to mourn his loss.

NO CHANGE IN COUNTY LEVY.

Fiscal Court Holds Busy Session.

Most of last week was taken up by the Fiscal Court, arranging the county levy, passing on claims, appropriating money for the different roads throughout the county. Every session had a full quota of the magistrates and business was run through rapidly.

The county levy was fixed the same as last year, 50 cents, and is divided as follows: 25 cents for maintaining, repairing, reconstructing the various roads of the county that are maintained by taxation; 8 cents for paying sal-ary's of the various officers of the county; 24 cents to pay interest on bonded indebtedness; 14 cents for interest on turnpike bonds, due in 1917; 2 cents to create sinking fund to pay court house bonds issued March 1915, for $15,000; 11 cents for general revenue and to liquidate legal demands.

State aid will be asked for to re-construct the Lancaster and Richmond turnpike, to the Madison county line.
J. W. Kinore, as Treasurer of the county filed his report which was approved and he was unanimously re-elected to serve another four years.
Sheriff G. T. Ballard Jr., made his final settlement with the court which was ordered to record.

The court appropriated $400 toward building a mile of road between Buena Vista and Polly's Bend. Eight hundred dollars was also voted and ordered appropriated to construct one mile of pike on the Wolf Trail road, some to come out of the 1917 levy, with the proviso that the same amount be raised by private subscriptions.

The salary of the health officer was raised from $150 to $250, some of the magistrates voting against the raise.
Dr. Acton is the present health officer and asked that the salary be fixed at $300.

Court adjourned to meet next Saturday for the appointment of a Farm Agent, mention of which was made in our last issue.

Nearly 100 German merchant vessels in American ports which were taken over by the Treasury Department probably will be utilized in the government service, but whether they will be confiscated or paid for after the war had not been announced.

SOUTH CAROLINA

FALLS IN LINE.

Kentucky started a bigger thing than she knew when she started the campaign against illiteracy. The South Carolina Legislature has just created an Illiteracy Commission to stamp out illiteracy from that State. First, tried moonlight schools out in a few counties and found they could wipe out illiteracy.
Now, they are going at it in earnest.

C. E.'S GIVE

SPLENDID PLAY.

"The Country Minister", rendered by home talent, for the benefit of the C. E.'s was a success both from the standpoint of an evenings entertainment and financially.

The "dramatic personae", was fine, each character being represented by those fitted in every way to play the part.
"Miss Jerusa Judkins", the old-maid postmistress, impersonated by Miss Helyn Young was a clever bit of acting as was also the parts taken by Misses Elizabeth Ford and Annie Margaret Elkin.

Katie Barnes Dickerson, as "Roxy." the fresh air kid" could not have been better.

Messrs. Miller, Carrier, Bastin, Crump, Price, Tinder and Stapp covered themselves with glory, in fact the acting was all so good one lost sight of it being an amateur performance. Mr.
Holbert Bastin showed great versatility by playing the villain as well as the whittler, while Billy Miller was a country parson "to the manner born".

Miss Mary Lee Lear delighted the audience with two solos.

The patriotic songs "en costume" rendered by Misses Mammie Stormes Dunn, Martha Tinder and Mary Lee Lear as Red Cross nurses, Robert Ross as a sailor, Robert Noland and James Tinder as U. S. soldiers were received with enthusiastic applause.

Big Dent White Seed Corn.

PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

In last issue of the Record in the "farmers column" appeared the advertisement of W. S. Embry, announcing 6 sows and 44 pigs for sale. Before the paper was hardly dry from the fresh ink, J. M. Cress saw the ad and came down and paid Mr. Embry $400.
For the bunch. Mr. Cress also bought some hogs for May delivery at $14.
